Sorority Says 'Hi Neighbor'!

Sorority members of the Delta Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, are currently saying, "Hi Neighbor" to newcomers in Appomattox, including (above) Miss Mildred Bailey, of Long Island, New York, who is making her home in the Jamerson apartments, Booth Drive. Miss Bailey is a retired teacher. She enjoys reading, collecting antiques and travel. In the sorority basket of coupons and gifts from merchants are certificates for free dinners, discounts on purchases and a booklet all about Appomattox to guide the newcomers. Calling on Miss Bailey were Mrs. Bobby Stanley and Mrs. C. L. McDearmon, Jr. Other newcomers recently greeted: Lt. and Mrs. E. C. Riner, Jamerson apartments on Hunter St.

STONEWALL

"Your names are written in heaven." Luke 10:20.

Well "The Fanatics", a singing group of 25 from Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, Richmond, came and spent the week end in the neighborhood and attended The Happening at Hebron Saturday night. There were 140 that attended the services. Such a good time was had by all. We must pay more attention to our young folks. They will be our leaders of tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roupe and family spent the week end at Williamsburg.

Mr. Claude Trent came for his wife and daughters Sunday. They spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bondurant.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Gilbert spent the week end with Mrs. Gilbert at Buena Vista.

Mrs. Parks Jennings visited her husband in Lynchburg General Hospital Sunday. He remains very ill.

Mrs. Melvin Moore is improving after having a fall on the escalator at Leggetts' Store last week. She broke her arm up at her shoulder. Do hope she gets well soon.

News received of Mrs. Martha McVetty is that she is doing fine since her heart operation at Mayo Clinic. She is able to walk the hall. Her mother, Mrs. Elsie Thornhill has gone to her home in Michigan to be with her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carson visited Mrs. Molly Glenn at Pamplin Sunday.

Those who visited Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Wheeler were Mrs. Wallace Bondurant, Mrs. Claude Trent, Rhonda and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Totty, Mrs. Elsie Kantz, Miss Mamie Cullop, Mrs. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jones and family.

Mrs. Elsie Caldwell spent the week end with J. S. Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Wheeler and Mrs. Elsie Caldwell went to Colonial Heights Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Sep Spencer. He is home after a month's stay in McGuire Hospital. He is getting on fine.

Miss Mattie Wright had Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Thacker and boys Sunday for dinner and she went with them home for a visit.

Miss Mattie Wright spent last Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Owen Carson at Concord.

Mrs. J. L. Harrison will take her husband to McGuire Hospital Monday for an examination. Do hope they may help him a lot.

Receives Scholarship

Lindsay Fleshman, a 1968 graduate of Appomattox High School and an employee of Appomattox Garment Co. has received a $1,000 scholarship to assist him in his first year at Kittrell College, Kittrell, N.C.

Lindsay Fleshman is the son of Mrs. Clara McFay. He has served 21 months with the U.S. Navy Reserve. The 1971-72 term at Kittrell College will begin Aug. 15.

Boys and girls of the kindergarten, 1st,2nd and 3rd grades of Robert E. Lee Academy rode in the observation car Thurs., April 29 from Lynchburg to Appomattox as part of a day's outing. The scheduled closing of passenger service May 1 caused a considerable increase in the number of person using the line for the first (and perhaps last) time.

Pupils Ride 'Pocahontas'

What do you do with nearly 46 children when a train is late? Ask Charles Barker, minister of education and music at Liberty Baptist Church, who assisted with the train ride last week taken by pupils of Robert E. Lee Academy.

Mr. Barker organized games of all kinds at the RR station, Lynchburg, waiting for the "Pocahontas" to arrive for a trip eastward toward Appomattox. He organized, the children played — then hopped aboard for a trip in the "bubble" observation car to see the scenery on Thurs., April 29.

Kindergarten teacher is Mrs. Charles Barker with these boys and girls: James Beaty, Janice Campbell, Tracy Chernault, Richard Conner, Steve Cyrus, Bonnie Drinkard, DeWitt Goin, Amy Gould, Richard Harrison, M. J. House, Connie Krantz, Mark Nash, Jill Noble, Robert Paulette, Dawn Pitsenberger, Sheila Roach, Michael Smith, David Vaughan, Michael Williams, Troy Woody.

First graders, with Mrs. John Taylor as teacher, include Buddy Baldwin, Kristin Barker, Laura Carter, Thomas Davis, Susan George, Jane Guill, Brenda Hoke, Susan Johnson, Kelly Moore, Kendall Moore, Tim Notestein, Stella Osborne, Janis Richardson, and Bobby Wingfield.

Second and third graders, with Mrs. Jennie Mae McAden as teacher, include Judy Carter, Gregory Davis, Lorna Goin, Peggy Goin, Phillip Kitchen, Sandra Kitchen, Allyson Barker, Melinda Davis, Gary Moore, Cheryl Notestein, Mark Pierce, Marie Waldo.

Room mothers who helped: Mrs. Ellen Nash, Mrs. Jim Beaty, Mrs. Pat House, Mrs. Barbara Carter, Mrs. Ole Osborne, Mrs. Diane Waldo, Mrs. Izzie Wingfield, Mrs. Daphine Moore.

CORRECTION

Correct names of the parents of 'Cookie' George Morgan of Appomattox are Gloria and George Morgan (Mr. and Mrs. George O. Morgan). In an article in last week's paper about Cookie George, the little boy who is awaiting a kidney transplant, Mrs. Morgan's name was given incorrectly. We regret this error.

Relatives and friends are attempting to raise funds to assist the family and to help pay huge medical expenses attendant with the boy's condition. One such effort is being organized by Mrs. Hazelle E. Boulware, Lynchburg, Va., who asks donations to be sent to Miss Louisa Cohan, 412 Madison St., Lynchburg, Va. 504.

NAMED TO COMMITTEE

C. S. Booth, town manager of Appomattox has been named to the Transportation Planning Technical Committee by the Central Va. Planning District Commission meeting last month in Lynchburg. This committee organization is one of the requirements of a contract between CVPDC and the Va. Dept. of Highways, a part of the Continuous Comprehensive Transportation Planning Process.

Jordan Baptist

"Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake." Psalm 115:1

Don't forget the program this Friday, May 7 at 7:30 a.m. The Elder Alfred Key and his singers will be in service. The Youth Club is sponsoring this program.

This Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m., Mr. James Broxton will be in concert. For an afternoon of good singing be sure to attend.

The Senior Choir will practice Thursday night at 7:30. All members please be present.
